Ministerial Alliance Is Told Why Working Men Don't Attend.

Endorsement of the movement for clothes conservation was voted at the weekly meeting of the ministerial alliance Monday morning following a talk on the purpose of the movement by J. W. Simpson, a member of the board of directors of the Tulsa Overall Club. Mr. Simpson requested that local ministers make mention of the movement from their pulpits.

The Oklahoma men will be entertained by Shrinees at Bakerfield and San Francisco, Calif., on the trip to Portland, and by the Colorado Springs, Colo., temple on the return trip, it was announced.

This train is to leave Portland on the return trip on the afternoon of June 27, and arrive in Colorado Springs the morning of June 28. At noon of the same day the train will leave Colorado Springs and is to arrive in Oklahoma City the morning of June 28.

Civic League to Plan
City Cleanup Drive

A meeting of the executive committee of the Tulsa Civic League for the purpose of planning a cleanup campaign has been called by Mrs. Lilah D. Lindsay, president for 2:30 this afternoon in the public library. Besides the president, members of the executive committee are Vice president, Misses E. Merry, Arthur H. Craver, J. R. Eddington, E. Forrest Hayden, H. D. Davis, Gray Carroll and Harriet L. Sutton; recording secretary, Mrs. Dan F. McCarthy, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Paul Blackwelder; historian, Mrs. Sadie Gremmet; press reporter, Miss Pauline Layman.

Firemen Win Fight.

SPRING SMITH, Arkansas, April 27.—City firemen today won a three-year fight for the establishment of a two-platoon system of reducing their labor from 24 to 12 hours when voters ratified the so-called privilege tax by a vote of 1,121 for to 44 against.

ATTEND G. O. P. MEET

Republican Club Elects 22 To Go To Annual Convention of State Federation of Clubs.

Local republicans will be well represented at the annual meeting of the Oklahoma Federation of Republican clubs to be held at Oklahoma City May 3. At a meeting of the Tulsa republican club in the club-headquarters in the Drew building last night 22 delegates were elected to represent the club at the convention.

The annual election of officers and the formulation of plans for taking an active part in the coming elections will be the principal business of the meeting, which will be presided over by John R. Bradley of Tulsa president.

Following are the delegates elected to represent Tulsa: John R. Bradley, E. O. Lingo, Mrs. L. D. Lindsey, Mrs. C. C. Lehman, Mrs. M. A. Drury, F. P. Nelson, C. H. Rogers, Dr. S. G. Kennedy, H. G. McMurtry,

A. A. Small, F. V. Westphal, Wayne D. Dickey, G. H. McCullough, W. E. Ripley, M. C. Nourse, Dr. V. A. Spitz Chan, Parker and C. W. Langford of Sand Springs, Capt. Brooks and N. V. Williams of Broken Arrow.

Reorganize Association.
WASHINGTON, April 27.—Reorganization of the National Education association, providing for election of officers by delegates instead of by direct membership vote, is authorized in a house bill passed today by the senate.

LONGFELLOW'S

EVANGELINE

The Most Sublime Drama of All Times at the Royal Theater

FOURTH AND MAIN

Now Showing—Runs Through Wednesday

"Evangeline," Henry Longfellow's immortal love epic, the most sublime drama in the history of American literature, is now showing at the Royal theater.

This historical tale, based on the wholesale deportation of the Acadians, is now presented by William Fox in motion picture form as a drama of unequalled beauty and power.

Bring the children. They either have studied or are studying "Evangeline" at school. This presentation of the beautiful poem is absolutely faithful and endorsed by leading educators.

Miriam Cooper, Mademoiselle of the screen, is at her best as the unhappy heroine, and the strong supporting cast includes Albert Roscoe, Spottswoode Aitken, James Marcus and Paul Weigel. The picture was directed by R. A. Walsh, the man who made "The Honor System," "Carmen," and a score of other Fox successes.

"Evangeline" is a picture that anyone with an appreciation of the best in motion pictures cannot afford to miss. Yours for the best in pictures.

The Royal Theater Is Under New Management. Big Programs—Great Pictures. Popular Prices, 10-30c.
